ARRESTS OF OFFICIALS IS BRANDED AS TERRORISM

Storm Of Protests Follows Action At Peking

LIU CASE ANGERS

Rail Chief Kept In Home Without Reason

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, May 11.—A storm of protests has broken out against the so-called illegal arrests of officials who were brave enough to remain in office during the trying period of the civil war. C. S. Liu is still a prisoner despite remonstrations which have come from every conceivable source, foreign and particularly Chinese. Returned students joined by many of the University students denounced this prosecution which is hailed to be contrary to every principle of democracy.

To send armed forces to a citizen's house without warning of any kind, without a warrant, and without the slightest explanation is held to be a reversion to the worst form of terrorism practiced under the old imperial regime. Telegrams have been sent to Wu Pei-fu urging that he straighten out the abuses which have been committed within the past week in Peking and that he restore a measure of the confidence obtained by his announced intention of giving the people a constitutional government. It is stated with authority that the recent mysterious arrests in Peking have occurred entirely without his knowledge.

FLAGRANT CASE

The case of C. S. Liu is considered the most flagrant in as much as the latter's services at the Ministry of Communications for the solution of the railroad difficulties are urgently needed at this time and, as his work during the past year has won great distinction even through the trying period of the civil war. His record is clean beyond any question and a further investigation of his case has proved the fact that he must be released as soon as there is any semblance of a legal trial. On the other hand it is said that his confinement will be used as an excuse for accepting his resignation from the post of Director General of Railroads which is coveted by others.

The method of arrest and dismissal from a post as a result of the arrest is not a new one and there is great anxiety lest it be again used. Most of those interested in the case of Mr. Liu do not have any doubt as to his ultimate release, but the acceptance of his resignation is precisely what they do not desire. When Mr. Yeh Kung-cho assumed the Minister's position he insisted that Mr. Liu remain as chief of the railway department. His resignation made when he disagreed with certain of the Chiaotung policies was not accepted. He was given a free hand in the administration of his department to which he limited his activities, having advised his staff to do likewise. At the outbreak of hostilities he again resigned, but remained at his post, his resignation not having been accepted. It is interesting to note that Mr. Liu's appointment was made by the former Minister, His Excellency Chang Chih-tan, and not by Yeh Kung-cho. Engineers connected with the Government railroads say there is no one competent to take Mr. Liu's place and it is greatly feared that some one, acceptable to the politicians, may be appointed to the position who has had little experience in the railway administration.

AIDED CHANG

It is now rumored that the arrest of Chung Shih-ming who was acting Minister of Finance is caused by the fact that he supplied the Fengtien forces with two millions of dollars.

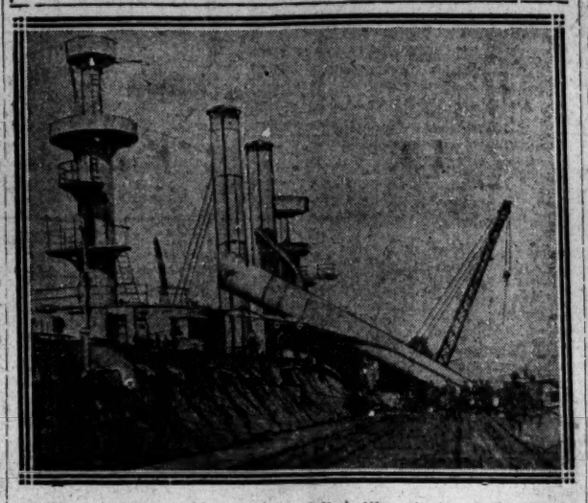
Historic Battleship Scrapped



THE famous old cruiser Brooklyn, flagship of Admiral Schley during the Spanish-American War, is being converted into junk at Oakland, Cal. The mammoth smokestacks were cut off with electric torches and felled like giants of the forest. Many more United States battleships are due to be junked in similar fashion, under the decisions reached at the Arms Limitation Conference at Washington.

MOTHER'S DAY OBSERVED HERE BY U. S. SAILORS

500 Men From Huron, Now in Port, Write Letters At Navy 'Y'

Mother's Day was observed Sunday at the Navy Y.M.C.A. in an interesting manner. The U.S.S. Huron, which was expected during the day, arrived at noon off Woosung with 1,000 sailors and marines and by 2 o'clock 500 sailors and marines were landed and all the men proceeded to the Navy "Y." They were met at the door by Mrs. Hollis Wilbur and Mrs. C. E. Crane, who, assisted by six American school girls, pinned a carnation, emblem of Mother's Day, on the blouse of every sailor and marine.

A feature of the day was the letter writing by the sailors to their mothers on note paper especially designed with carnations for Mother's Day correspondence. Many writing tables had been arranged to serve the large number who wrote letters. Mrs. John Brenneman and Mrs. Paul Brown attended the sailors at the writing tables, helping them to stationery and postage stamps. Mrs. Charles Campbell and Miss Frances Taylor made candies and served large quantities to the sailors.

There was a large letter box with a glass front through which could be seen the steadily increasing pile of letters and on the box were posters reading "Mother's Day Mail Box" and "Is Your letter To Your Mother In This Box?" By evening several hundred letters had been written and placed in the letter box.

At 7 o'clock the sailors were treated to a Sukiyaki dinner at which ladies cooked and served the savory Japanese food.

After dinner, religious services appropriate to the day were held. Chaplain Hayes of the Huron gave the address "Your Mother;" Miss Ethel Lacey read a poem, "Somebody's Mother;" Miss June Paterson sang "The Songs Our Mothers Loved To Sing;" and hymns were sung by the sailors. Afterwards a moving picture "Rich Man, Poor Man" was shown.

Every sailor wore a white carnation and nearly every one of them wrote a letter to his mother. The sailors were given 48 hours' leave from ship at the expiration of which the remaining 500 men will be given two days' liberty. The Huron will sail on Thursday for Manila and the Navy "Y" will furnish entertainment every afternoon and evening during the ship's brief stay in port.

The Y.M.C.A. was crowded to capacity all evening and at night, after all beds were signed for, 75 folding army cots were put down in halls and in the social room. These were soon taken and blankets were furnished to all who could not get beds. About 50 slept on the floor.

Last night there was a performance by Chinese jugglers and acrobats followed by moving pictures.

WRITER DELIVERS ADDRESS BEFORE UNIVERSITY MEN

Mr. Isaac Marcosson Speaks At St. John's; Also At Newspaper Club

Two interesting and instructive lectures were delivered yesterday afternoon by Mr. Isaac Marcosson, who is in the East to gather data for articles in the Saturday Evening Post. At 4 p.m. he lectured before the faculty and student body of St. John's University, on the problem of the readjustment of the situation in Europe.

Mr. Marcosson said that although various attempts had been made in recent years to avert war, war did come; and when the last world war was being fought, the leading figures of that war were looking forward to a new era of world reconstruction and international concord. Their subsequent disappointment was due, said the speaker, to the faults of the Versailles Treaty which showed two serious mistakes: it did not consider Germany as an indispensable factor to the readjustment of the economic life of the world, and it recast the map of Europe along sentimental and nationalistic lines instead of taking into consideration the interdependence of the people of Europe for carrying on their business.

To prove that the European nations are now experiencing new brands of post-bellum hatred as the direct result of the doctrine of self-determination, the speaker cited various instances. From the economic standpoint Mr. Marcosson showed that the new geographical boundaries add immensely to the embarrassments of communication—for example, a traveller's passport in Austria has to be vised nine times, while a railway station just across the border was gutted by fire because the men from the fire-station on the Austrian side were not allowed to cross to the Italian side to extinguish it because their passports had expired.

A reception was held later in the afternoon at Ling Nan Lau in honor of Mr. Marcoson by the Shanghai Newspapermen's Club, composed mostly of Chinese reporters, which was anxious to learn from the distinguished journalist his formula for success in the field of journalism. He spoke at some length on the qualifications for successful newspaper work.

Mr. Marcosson was asked by the Club to carry back to the States a message of appreciation for what America had done for China at the Washington Conference.

Mr. Francis Zia, foreign secretary of the Club, presided and interpreted for Mr. Marcosson who was warmly acclaimed at the end of his address.

RUSS REFUSE ACCEPTANCE OF PLAN FOR COMMISSION

Schanzer Notified O. Soviets' Attitude At Genoa

OPPOSE TERMS

Reserve Right To Dissent From Findings

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 15.—It is reported that the Russians have notified Signor Schanzer that they refuse to accept the proposed terms for the appointment of the Russian Commission.

Genoa, May 14.—The situation may be regarded as very much improved as all concerned seem to be anxious for the Conference not to terminate without some definite accomplishment. The question of a rupture may now be discarded.

The convening Powers will meet at the Villa D'Albertis today to discuss the composition and powers of the proposed commission of experts on Russian affairs and presumably the reply to the Russian note.

London, May 14.—Mr. J. L. Garvin telegraphs to the Observer from Genoa that the secret of the Russian reply, which is known to Mr. Lloyd George, is that the Russians want to settle but dare not sign at Genoa owing to the views of their extremists. Consequently, they aim through a mixed commission to prolong negotiations in the belief that they will later gain backing at Moscow through the influence of M. Lenin after he is acquainted with the details.

Inquire Into Case Of Coolie Shot At Rifle Range Sunday

An inquest was held at the Mortuary yesterday afternoon over the body of a coolie who was accidentally shot at the Rifle Range during the "A" Company rifle meeting Sunday. The victim was cleaning a rifle, supposedly unloaded, when the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking him in the abdomen and causing a wound from which he died later in hospital. It is understood that the S. V. C. will conduct an inquiry into the accident.

Another inquest held by the Mixed Court authorities dealt with the circumstances surrounding the death of a barrow coolie who was run over by a motor vacuum tank driven by Mr. J. Reyes on April 29 and succumbed at St. Luke's hospital on May 2. The driver was found not to have been at fault but Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Li criticised the police for not taking steps to get in touch with the man's relatives after the accident and the hospital authorities for not notifying the police of the death.

Parisienne "Queen Of Queens" Passes In Review

THROUGH the gaily bedecked streets of Paris rode the "Queen of Queens"—Mlle. Buchet selected as the most beautiful girl in the French capital. Here she is shown riding a horse at the head of the procession that marched through the French metropolis during a recent carnival. From the window of the Elysee Palace the children of President Millerand watched the parade.

Chinese Film Vamps Have A Technique All Their Own

By Elsie McCormick

We don't know whether or not there is a word in the Chinese language for "vampire," but anyway they've got the idea. A Chinese vampire doesn't wear jet earrings that scrape her shoulder-blades or gowns that fit her like a coat of Ningpo varnish or great shell combs that stand up above her head like a hill behind a farm-house. She doesn't, as far as we have been able to learn, even smoke cigarettes in a long amber holder, disposing of the ashes with a subtle gesture that drives good men mad.

The uniform of a Chinese vampire consists in a tam-o' shanter pulled over one eye. When she wishes to capture a new victim to whom she has not been introduced, she drops something weighing about ten pounds on his toe. This is followed by a glance that is almost as heavy and the intrigue is on. Apparently Chinese gentlemen appealed to in this subtle manner respond with the energy of a new volunteer company going to a fire.

These at least are some of the conclusions we drew after seeing the film, "Vampire's Prey." Written and acted entirely by Chinese, the picture marks the beginning of an industry which will probably nourish like the bay-tree or the bay-window or bay-rum whatever is most given to flourishing. Some day, not more than five years hence, reconstructed Tartar generals will probably be charging over the Great Wall, Confucius will be instructing his disciples at the Apricot Altar, and tourists on the outskirts of Peking will be startled to find an imperial procession winding down from the Western Hills. The late Empress-Dowager will again be seen rocking the Marble Boat and the Yellow Emperor will be caught in the act of cutting the Yangtsze gorges. Foreigners terrified by onrushing hordes of bandits will later discover a camera grinding out yards of film in the sequestered shade of a bamboo tree.

WILL THERE BE A COLONY?

What we want to know is: Will China develop a Hollywood? Will there eventually be a film capital where lovers fight and villains die by day and where the merry, merry tea-houses tinkle and glitter all the night? Will Chinese flappers cross the country to take positions as "extras" for a handful of coppers a week? Will Chinese youths in the shadow of the farthermost pagoda spend their time carefully tracing epistles to the ladies of the flickering screen?

Will location men pussy-foot patiently over China, making notes of every lotus-pond, curved bridge, or outdoor idol that might make a good background for a murder or a fusillade of lemon meringue? When we put this supposition up to Ah Ling, our domesticated wheel-barrow coolie, he shook his head pensively and murmured, "My no savee." No more do we, but there we see no full-chested reason why it shouldn't all come true.

If we can judge by the "Vampire's Prey," the new Chinese film is a hybrid. It is our proposal that Chinese likely to write for, produce, or act for the movies should be forbidden to see a Western moving-picture serial under penalty of transportation to Turkestan. Those who fathered "Vampire's Prey" had evidently taken a post-graduate course in the "Meddlings of Madeline" or "The Graftings of Gertie." They gathered a lot of knock-kneed ideas from these masterpieces which they interpersed with their localised plot. The result was interesting but messy. The picture presented such anomalies as a secret society of Chinese women meeting in the interior of a medieval castle. It showed the same ladies garbed in hooded skull and cross-bone gowns which were adopted bodily from such masterpieces as "The Iron Claw." If the producers must have melodrama, let them find melodrama that was born and raised in the country, not the type that came here in the steerage next to several bales of sausage-casings.

On the whole the Chinese actors acquitted themselves creditably. They acted with much more naturalness than we anticipated and their gestures were far removed from the Delsartian culture that passes for realism in Chinese theaters.

There are two things, however, that Oriental screen stars do not do well—they invariably muff the love scenes and they don't know how to weep. When a young doctor wishes to win the hand of a lady patient, he leads her to an exposed bench in the geometric center of the hospital park, draws her to him like a stevedore handling a sack of potatoes, and fails by some two inches to make a proper contact between her head and his shoulder. The young lady keeps her head in this unsupported condition throughout the proposal, rousing herself only when her mother appears and exclaims, according to the caption, "What a shame! I don't like to think of it."

INEXPERT WEEPING

Perhaps it is because the Chinese weep so little that they do it so inexpertly. Instead of a close-up of a beautiful face with glycerine tears welling slowly from heavily-fringed eyes, the audience is given a view of the heroine weeping explosively against a tree. In another scene she heaves her shoulders with a regularity that suggests the use of a force-pump. While studying "The

HURON RETURNS FROM WAR ZONE ENROUTE SOUTH

Extra Marine Forces Sent North For War Leave Here Thursday

The U. S. S. Huron, flagship of the American Asiatic Fleet, with Rear Admiral Joseph Strauss aboard, which arrived off Woosung Sunday from the war zone at Chinwangtao as expected to sail Thursday morning for the Philippine Islands. The warship is taking back to Olongapo, Philippine Islands, two companies of American Marines, who were taken to North China to guard American interests when hostilities broke out between Chang Tso-lin and Wu Pei-fu. One of the Marine companies was stationed at Peking, and the other at Tientsin. With their return, the American Legation Guard at Peking has been reduced to its normal strength of 500.

The Huron went to Chinwangtao direct from Manila. There, Rear-Admiral Strauss left the ship and went to Peking by train. Later, the vessel was ordered down to Taku Bar, where Rear Admiral Strauss rejoined it after making the trip from Peking to Tientsin by automobile while train service on the Peking-Tientsin line was still interrupted.

The Huron will remain off Woosung for four days, in order to give the men shore leave, as they had no leave in Tientsin. On its return to the Philippines, it will go into drydock for a few weeks at Olongapo, and will then return to Shanghai on its summer cruise.

Captain Clark D. Stearns, U. S. N., is in command of the Huron, having recently relieved Captain H. I. Cone, U. S. N., in that post. Lieut. Commdr. Robert C. Giffen, U. S. N., recently relieved Lieut. Edw. W. Strothers as executive officer of the Huron.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB DUE HERE LATE NEXT MONTH

The University of California Glee Club will figure in the entertainment program of Shanghai next month, according to announcement made yesterday.

The college performers are due to arrive here on the Pacific Mail liner Golden State on June 24, during the course of an entertainment tour of the East. They will be under the direction of Mr. C. R. Morse, who has been director of the club since 1899. Details of the personnel and features of the troupe have not yet been received here, but will be announced shortly.

CHANG EDICT PROCLAIMS MANCHURIA INDEPENDENT

Defeated Warlord Will Try To Set Up New State

WU SUPPORTED

Eight Provinces To Stand By Chihli Leader

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Tientsin, May 15.—General Chang Tso-lin has proclaimed the independence of Manchuria.

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, May 15.—Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu have of late addressed a telegram in joint names to Wang Shih-chen, urging the latter to undertake the formation of a new Cabinet. It is reported that the telegram is not a very lengthy one. In view of the fact that more than ten local provinces have already wired to Wang Shih-chen, earnestly requesting him to form a Cabinet, it is most likely that a Wang Shih-chen Cabinet will make its appearance before long.

It is learned on good authority that Wang Shih-chen has a mind of giving his consent to the request after obtaining an understanding with President Hsu, Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu with regard to the Presidential question and that it will take more than ten days to solve the Cabinet question.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Paotingfu, May 14 (5 p.m.)—Eight provinces including Hunan and Szechuan, both of which have shown more than leanings to Dr. Sun Yat-sen in the past, have accepted Wu Pei-fu's suggestion of the restoration of the old Parliament, with, if possible, Li Yuan-hung as President.

No word has yet come from General Chen Chiung-ming nor has General Lu Yung-hsiang expressed his opinion as to the feasibility of the project to recall the old Parliament. General Lu undoubtedly holds the deciding hand and has not yet committed himself.

In case the requisite support is received, Tsao Kun will head the manifesto which either will force President Hsu to resign in favor of former President Li Yuan-Hung or show fight. To date, although unsupported and having no party, he still clings to his office in Peking proposing as a compromise a temporary cabinet that will let him finish his unexpired term.

Wu's entourage here laughs at the political jockeyings of Peking and its propaganda. It is openly asserted that Wu Pei-fu has sanctioned no political arrangements excepting the premiership of Wang Shih-chen and even he has not accepted the office having been unable to find a finance minister.

NOW UP TO HSU

All here are waiting anxiously to see whether Hsu Shi-chang will prove a big enough man to resign his presidency and leave the field clear for his successor. One of the hopeful signs about the situation here is the evident effort to please all parties and the cabinet as outlined is filled with the strongest men it is possible to expect to accept. It is as follows:

Foreign Office, Wu Ting-fang; Navy, Sah Chen-ping; War, Chen Chiung-ming; Justice, Wang Chung-hui; Education, Tsai Yuen-pei; Interior, Wang Chao-ming; Agriculture and Commerce, Swen Hung-yi; Communications, Kao En-hung. The actual temporary arrangement probably will be for W. W. Yen or Wellington Koo to act as foreign minister.

The news that eight provinces have declared in favor of the Wu Pei-fu plan for China's unity was received with thanksgiving by many well connected Chinese some of whom hasard the opinion that General Lu Yung-hsiang would not stand in the way of this first workable scheme that has been proposed to glue up the cracks in the Chinese lute.

Without doubt, Lu Yung-hsiang holds the balance of power, say Chinese students of politics. He is ostensibly Tuchun of Chekiang only, but his authority extends as far as Nanking on the north, while Fukien and Kweichow (possibly Kwangsi also) would make their decision as he dictates.

General Lu's past pronouncements urging the abolition of all tuchunates as the first step for unity is pointed out by the Chinese as a hopeful sign that he will sink his personal antipathy, if he holds such a feeling, against the old parliament and give it a chance to complete its work of drawing a contitution for China. This done, it is asserted, the old parliament could be dissolved with the approval of all China as its mandate of office provides only that it should hold office until the organic law of the country is promulgated.

IS SUN'S VIEW

Such is the view of the duties of the old parliament expressed in the past by Sun Yat-sen, and even the most rabid "constitutionalists," the Chinese assert, have never gone beyond this demand: that the old parliament finish its work and be succeeded by whatever law making body it please the Chinese people to elect.

Chang In For New Beating If He Makes Stand, Peking Belief

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 14.—With regard to the refusal of the officials to take up the Manchurian posts (mentioned yesterday), it appears that, while General Wu Chun-shen is at Tsitsihar and Mr. Shih Chi-chang at Harbin, the refusals came from Mukden. Thus, it is suspected that the Government telegrams were held up at Mukden and replies sent by General Chang Tso-lin's agents, but, at any rate, the nominees could not take up the posts while General Chang remains at the head of the army.

Jewish Amateurs To Repeat Play In English Today

The Jewish Amateur players will give a last performance today at the Jewish Club "Ahduth" of the Jewish play "The Great Deliverance" which is being presented in English. The last two performances were a great success, and the players were prevailed upon to give a final show to meet with the request of a large number who could not witness the previous performances.

The play will be followed by a vaudeville show, part of which is devoted to a Chinese scene put on for the first time in Shanghai. The proceeds of the play are to be given to the Orphan Relief Fund, and the Jewish Club "Ahduth" has very kindly placed the use of the stage at the disposal of players.

BROOKE SMITH IS GUEST AT DINNER ON EVE OF SAILING

Mr. A. Brooke Smith, taipan of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co. who is leaving for England on furlough by the Empress of Asia Saturday, was guest of honor at a dinner given by Mr. Pan Ching-poo at his residence Sunday evening. A representative gathering of leading British and Chinese citizens attended the dinner, the guests including Mr. E. F. Mackay, Admiral Tsai Ting-kan, Mr. A. W. Burkill, Commissioner Hsu Yuan, Messrs. H. H. Girardet, C. P. Yin, B. D. F. Beith, Chang Nieh-yun, P. W. Massey, C. C. Nieh, Fu Siao-en, C. W. Beswick, Chun Bing-him, G. W. Sheppard, Austin, McNicol, Lo Chak-sang, Ling Pung-kee, Chan Shut-kai, Pan Tse-chuen and others.

In proposing the health of Mr. Brooke-Smith and wishing him a pleasant holiday, Mr. Pan paid a tribute to his work as Chairman of the Municipal Council, his friendly relations with the Chinese and his sense of justice and unfailing sympathy in dealing with all matters which affected the Chinese residents in this Municipality. Mr. Pan also referred to the excellent relations which have existed for many years between the house of "Ewo" and its Chinese commercial friends.

Mr. Chang Nieh-yun, adding his tribute to those of the host, remarked upon the importance and influence of the British leaders of commerce in China in shaping their nation's diplomatic policy.

He expressed the hope that Mr. Brooke Smith, during his furlough in England, would urge upon the British Government the desirability of allocating part of the Boxer Indemnity for the education of Chinese students in Britain and under British auspices.

That the leading Chinese business men in Shanghai and elsewhere should take a more active part in Chinese politics and exert their influence in securing better government for the country, was the keynote of Mr. Brooke Smith's speech in reply.

"You must get a strong man, an honest man, to head a responsible cabinet which should devote its attention to the encouragement and development of industries and opening up the country's resources," he said. "Get rid of your militarists and Tuchuns, disband the great hordes of idle soldiers who could be put to useful employment, if only the Government could be brought to realise the wisdom of encouraging the opening up of industries throughout the country."

Mr. Brooke Smith referred to tariff anomalies and the necessity of absolute "free trade" within the boundaries of China, so that the raw materials and manufactures produced in any one part of the country could be transported and sold in every other part of China without harassing taxes and imposts. Personally, he believed that under an efficient administration, the time was coming when China would be imposing "protective customs duties" to protect and develop her internal industries, against foreign competition.

Mr. Brooke Smith spoke in reminiscent mood of his twenty-five years in China. Like all British residents in China, he sincerely desired to see China take her proper place among the nations, but hopes of a strong and united China under a strong and efficient government were no brighter today than they were 25 years ago.

As to the work of the Municipal Council in Shanghai, he assured his Chinese friends that no measures were taken without the fullest consideration of Chinese as well as foreign interests. The Settlement, in these troubled times, was a "sanctuary" for trade and peaceful intercourse, and it had always been his duty as a member of the Council to consider what was just and right for the community as a whole.

Mr. E. F. Mackay, in a short speech, urged both Chinese and foreign employers to be "considerate to labor."

To Hear Mellows Case Again Today

Thomas Edward Mellows, son of Inspector T. Mellows of the River Police was on trial yesterday morning in the British Police Court on the charge of having forged a check for $160.00 on the American Oriental Banking Corporation. The complainant Kalick Thomasevitch, proprietor of a boarding house in Range road, charged that Mellows had given him the check to defray a board bill, pretending that his father was the drawer. Counsel for the defense maintained that Mellows had signed his own name and initials so that no forgery had been committed. After preliminary testimony the hearing was adjourned until this morning.

Sir Edward Pearce Tendered Poem At Farewell Dinner

A farewell dinner was given in honor of Sir Edward C. Pearce, who is leaving on the Empress of Asia on Saturday on a furlough, by Mr. Zee Ping-wei, prominent Chinese cotton merchant and banker, last night at 4 Medhurst Road. A score of prominent British and Chinese gentlemen were present.

Mr. Zee paid a glowing tribute to the distinguished service that Sir Edward has rendered to the Shanghai community and his indefatigable efforts to bring the Chinese and foreigners into closer relationship.

Sir Edward responded, thanking his host and pointed out that good business conditions depend upon government. It was in this spirit of public service that his firm, Ilbert Company, had contributed the efforts of two of its taipans to service on the Council.

Mr. Zee then presented Sir Edward with a tablet on which was written the following poem, both in English and Chinese:

To
Sir Edward Pearce

On the eve of his departure from Shanghai for a well-deserved holiday—May 1922.

When first you landed at Shanghai it was but a paltry place.
"Progress" became your watchword! now resplendent buildings grace
Our Township! You, Sir Edward Pearce, have played a noble part!
We owe you much! In truth, your name is graven in the heart
Of Shanghai! Men of every race and men of every creed
Unite to pay you Tribute, Sir, the praise which is your meed!

And now your Country claims you for a season; go in peace!
Be confident the work of progress never more will cease!
You set the high example, grudging naught of time nor care,
May those who follow after you be worthy of your chair
Upon the Council! Let them try to rise above the ruck!
And so, we wish you happiness, Sir Edward, and, Good Luck!

Sir Edward is going home by way of Canada. He expects to spend nine months in England and then return to China.

CLOSING SESSION OF WOMAN'S CLUB TO BE HELD TODAY

Reports For Year To Be Given At Last Meeting Of Season

The last general meeting of the American Woman's Club, to be held today at 4 p.m. at the Carlton Cafe will sum up the club year in brief, telling what has been done and who did it. The reports of departments and committees will give a bird's-eye view of the achievements of the organisation during the past season and no member should lose the opportunity of putting herself au courant with the happenings of the whole association. The hostesses for the tea which will precede the meeting are Mrs. J. W. Nichols and Mrs. Blackhall.

The only department meeting of the past week was that of the Literary Department which met on Friday at the Royal Asiatic Society's Hall to hear a paper on "Shih Huang Ti, the Napoleon of China" by Mrs. J. J. Brenneman and another on "The Early Poetry of China" by Mrs. H. E. Davis. The two presentations could hardly have been more effectively contrasted, Mrs. Brenneman presenting in lively narrative the arresting incidents of this Oriental "man of destiny" while Mrs. Davis brought out the beauty and philosophic calm of Eastern poetry, quoting some exquisite lyrics to illustrate her analysis. Members and friends are invited to a view of Mr. Morgan's pictures on Saturday, May 20 from 10 to 6 at the library of the Christian Literature Society.

Tomorrow at ten o'clock, the Mothers' Department will hold its final session for the season. Reports of the different officers will be given and Dr. W. G. Hiltner will give a health talk, with special advice for mothers on the special difficulties which summer brings in the care of children.

On Monday, May 22, the Courtesies Committee will be hostesses at a tea to be given from four to six at the home of Mrs. J. F. Hammond, 116 Weihaiwei Road. The invited guests include the retiring executive board, the incoming board and courtesies committee, the past presidents and non-members who have entertained the club during the year.

FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

No woman who has any sense of beauty will deny that superfluous hair is one of the greatest drawbacks to good looks.

Realising this, women of all times have put themselves to any expense, and have endured considerable pain and discomfort in order to rid themselves of this great disfigurement.

Nowadays electrolysis is a prevalent "cure" for this evil, but in reality this process involves a great deal of unnecessary expense, waste of time and pain.

The simplest quickest, and most effective treatment can easily be carried out by any sufferer, in the privacy of her home. This is the recipe:

Procure about 1 oz. powdered pheminol from your chemist; mix a sufficient quantity with a few drops of water into a stiff paste. Apply this carefuly and thoroughly to the hair you wish to remove, and allow the paste to dry. In a few minutes it can be gently scraped away. The skin is left absolutely free from hair, and should then be carefully washed in warm water, and if desired, lightly dusted with a little talcu powder. (Advt.)

NEW CARGO SHIP FOR UPPER RIVER IS LAUNCHED HERE

Ping Wo, Built By New Engineering Works For Indo-China Company

Another addition to the Upper Yangtsze cargo carrying fleet, and one embodying many new features, took the water here yesterday afternoon when the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company's new ship, the Ping Wo, was launched at the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Works.

Following the launch Mr. C. F. Arnold, proposing the toast to the ship and her owners, said: "Ladies and gentlemen, it is my privilege to propose the toast of success to the steamer Ping Wo which you have just witnessed christened and so gracefully launched by Mrs. Brooke-Smith. The Ping Wo has been specially designed and constructed at these works to the requirements of her owners, The Indo-China Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., for trade on the Yangtsze, and is of a distinct type, embodying many new features and improvements decided on as the result of collaboration with the owners' representatives with a view to specially fitting her for the trade upon which she will be engaged.

"I need scarcely enlarge upon the activities of the Indo-China Steam Navigation Co. on this coast. Their enterprise forms one of the most important links in the chain of commerce between China and overseas countries, and their action in adding another vessel to their already large fleet of steamers, indicates the high hopes held by this shipping company for the future development of China's trade.

"Speaking on behalf of the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Works, I would like to express our keen appreciation at the confidence reposed in us in entrusting us with the construction of this specially-designed vessel. I hope that the result will justify this confidence and that this order will be the forerunner of further new construction to be placed with these Works by this progressive shipping company.

"Before concluding I would like to refer to the very able assistance we have received from Commander Rolf and Mr. G. D. Grant, the owners' Marine Superintendents, and Mr. Kingwood. These gentlemen have worked with us in the most amicable manner possible throughout the construction of this vessel, and I would like to record our appreciation of their valued assistance.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I will ask you to charge your glasses and to join me in drinking success to the s.s. Ping Wo and continued prosperity to her owners, which toast I will couple with the name of Mr. Brooke-Smith."

The Ping Wo was built at the works of the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Works and is an excellent example of a modern high class cargo vessel specially designed for service in the Upper Yangtsze. The vessel's leading particulars are as follows: Length overall, 290 ft.; length B.P., 280 ft.; breadth moulded, 46 ft.; depth moulded to Main Deck, 13 ft. 6 in.

The vessel is constructed of steel with straight stem and elliptical stern. There are two complete steel decks designated, the upper and main deck respectively, extending the full length of vessel, the exposed upper deck, forward and aft, also the forward alleyways being sheathed with teak. The main hull is subdivided into five watertight compartments; starting from forward the main compartments are allocated as follows: fore peak, forward cargo hold and 'tween decks, machinery space, after cargo hold and 'tween decks and after peak. The cargo holds and 'tween decks are served by extra large hatchways. Cargo ports are arranged on each side for facilitating handling of cargo in 'tween decks. The vessel has one mast which carries two derricks of 5 tons lifting capacity for ordinary working and in addition a derrick for handling heavy weights.

The propelling machinery, which has been constructed by the builders, consists of two sets of triple expansion surface condensing engines. Steam is supplied by two large single-ended return and tube boilers designed and constructed at the builders' works, a Howden's forced draught installation being fitted. A donkey boiler also built at the works is installed for working the deck machinery and auxiliaries.

There is a very complete set of auxiliary machinery of the latest type installed in the vessel, including two duplicate electric lighting sets of direct current dynamos coupled to Sisson's Enclosed steam engines.

Whooping Cough.

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

Furniture Making Industry Virtually Paralysed By Strike

Due to the spread of the strike of cabinet makers that now involves about 1,500 artisans, Shanghai's furniture-making industry is virtually paralysed. The strike began about ten days ago when the Shanghai workers walked out demanding an increase of wages from 76 cents to $1.01. Efforts of the strikers in the past week have been devoted to an attempt to induce the Ningpo workers to join them and this succeeded yesterday. Firms particularly hit when the Ningpo men joined the strike are Weeks and Company, Tai Chong's, Hall and Holtz and Arts and Crafts.

Boy Scouts To Sell Jamboree Tickets At Offices Saturday

The combined troops of Baden Powell and American Scouts of Shanghai are holding their annual Jamboree on Empire Day, May 24. Funds are being raised toward the purchase of a larger and more convenient ground than that which they are at present occupying.

In order to facilitate the sale of tickets, all offices and hongs will be visited by Scouts on next Saturday morning. Careful arrangements have been made fore the partitioning of the districts to be covered between the various troops in order that there shall be no inconvenience caused by overlapping.

Tickets may now be bought of Scouts, price $1, children half price. The number of tickets sold by the various Troops up to the present is as follows:

Cathedral Troop 400
French School Troop 350
Public School Troop 97
Thomas Hanbury School Troop 80.

Chinese Film Vamps Have A Technique All Their Own

Harassments of Helen" the producers apparently failed to observe that movie tears fall one by one and are unaccompanied by calesthenics.

The captions of "Vampire's Prey" deserve a chapter by themselves. All of them wiggle uncertainly on the narrow line between academic English and the Letters of a Japanese School-Boy. When poison is applied to a gentleman's teacup, the caption carefully explains that it is administered "so as to gradually cease his activities." The synopsis announces that "the pair of youthful people soon become sweet friends." Later when the two Chinese vamps capture the young doctor under the very eyes of his sweet friend, the text explains, "On the very day of the lovers' appointment, Pan Chuan-nian and Pan Chao-nian also pay a visit to the garden and peradventure single Dr. Bao as their prospective prey." We trust, however, that there will be no changes in the captions. They carry a flavor of Westernised East that is the very distilled essence of Shanghai.

Practically every film of more than three reels is advertised by enthusiastic press-agents as "epoch-making." "Vampire's Prey" is one of the few we know of that really deserve the title, not for its own merits so much as for all it foreshadows. If only the infant art can be taken away in time from the influence of its sensational Western stepmother, it may develop into something new and distinctly beautiful. China has natural and architectural settings that could never be produced in the West, she has artistic appreciation nurtured through long milleniums, and her people possess a natural ability to act. If instead of producing echoes of Western hair-raisers she would look into her history, her domestic problems, the life of her humble people, and her own heart, China might make a contribution to the art of the silver sheet that will influence her standing throughout the world.

There was one scene, we might add, that drew sighs of unfulfilled hopes from the impecunious foreign swains of Shanghai. We noted that when the doctor escorted two of his sweet friends to dinner at a popular hotel, one of the ladies paid the chit.

Produce Company Gets 2 Judgments In Mixed Court

Two judgments involving over $135,000 were given in favor of the Oriental Stock and Produce Company in the Mixed Court by Italian Assessor Ferrajolo and Magistrate Tsang yesterday by default. The defendants in the two cases have two weeks within which they may re-open the cases.

In one suit against the Chi Dah Hong, a produce hong, the exchange company received judgment for $54,206.33, and in the other, against Tung Dan Hong and Kyung Tse-quen, for $75,533.13. In both cases the exchange company made claims of money due it as the result of business transactions at the November settlement. The defendants failed to put in an appearence, it is said, because they claim the protection of a foreign consulate. Musso and Fischer represented the exchange company in both suits.

Effort To Adjust Fish Men's Strike To Be Made Today

A mediation meeting between fish-dealers and the striking fish-peddlers will be held at the Ningpo Association, Thibet Road, this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The Ningpo Association has undertaken the work of mediation.

The fish mongers, numbering over 400, went on strike on Saturday following a dispute with wholesale fish dealers over the question of big and small money. The retailers and hawkers assert that their sales are all made in small money, but that the wholesalers have now put into effect a scale of big money prices. The retailers lose 200 cash on sales of over $1 under the new demands made by the wholesalers, they assert, and refused to buy any fish for the Sunday trade.

Court Defers Action In Application For Judgment Execution

Application for execution of a judgment against Chang Ping-ming and the Chang Yu Pioneer Wine Company made in the Mixed Court by the Corporazione Bancaria Sino-Italiana has been adjourned pending receipt here of a copy of the judgment, said to have been given by the Peking Civil Courts.

The Italian company alleged that it has received judgment against the Chinese wine company for $108,510 in the civil court at Peking, and filed suit in the Mixed Court for execution of judgment.

Mr. P. W. Goldring, representing the defendants, asserted that the Mixed Court did not have the power to execute any but its own judgments, and further alleged that the judgment had been given against only the individual and not the company.

"I know I should carry life insurance, but I can't afford it".

"THAT statement reveals the fact that if you were to die now your family would suffer. Then isn't this the very best time to insure? Taking out life insurance doesn't involve purchasing something that you can or can't afford. It is merely paying a debt that you owe, assuming a responsibility that you as a husband and father will not wish to avoid. Can you afford to have it said that you did not provide for your family as well as you were able?"

AUTHORITY GIVEN TO AUCTION NEW WORLD HOLDINGS

Judgment Is Given On Motion In Mixed Court

Authorisation for Messrs. Burkhardt Amidani and Co. to proceed with the auction of the business and property of the New World amusement place which they held under mortgage is given in a judgment on a motion handed down by Italian Assessor Ferrajolo and the Chinese Magistrate at the Mixed Court. The text of the judgment follows:

The plaintiffs ask for authority to sell at public auction the securities they hold under a mortgage deed registered at His Italian Majesty's Consulate General on February 23, 1921.

The Directors of the New World Co., supported by the Tobacco Products Corporation (who claim to be the assignees of a claim of a certain Loh, a Chinese citizen, against the New World Co.) and by the Court accountants, have not opposed the application in itself for sale, but only requested additional notice and sale after the Chinese New Year.

The Court finds:

a) That the plaintiffs are entitled according to the mortgage deed to foreclose the mortgage whenever its covenants are broken and that they are then at liberty to sell at auction whenever they desire.

b) That the plaintiffs being the mortagees in possession are secured creditors and as such entitled to sell without interference by the official receiver.

c) That a reserved price may be fixed by defendants for the sale of the property which involves a considerable amount of money.

Therefore, plaintiffs are authorised to sell by public auction the whole business and property of the New World Company which they held, provided the mortgage is not redeemed in the meanwhile. A reserved price may be fixed by the defendants on the condition that a sum of Tls. 1,000 be deposited in Court by the directors of the defendant company within 7 days from the date hereof as security to cover the extra expenses which may have to be incurred in, should the auction with a reserved price result in failure.

If the first attempt to sell should result in failure, another reserve price may be fixed for the second and last time, provided that another sum of Tls. 1,000 be deposited in Court within 7 days from the first auction as security to cover the expenses should the second attempt to sell result in failure.

Whenever the said directors of the defendant company should fail to put up within the times as above prescribed the cash securities for either the first or second auction referred to, or should the second auction with reserved price result in failure, plaintiffs shall proceed with the auction without any other limit of price.

Messrs. Musso and Fischer represent the plaintiffs in the case and Messrs. Teesdale, Godfrey and Newman the defendants.

Sea-Sickness Can be Prevented!

No Drugging—No Unpleasant After-Effects.

An appreciative doctor wrote:—

"Lady——was placed under my care for the voyage Home. I could not accept any responsibility as I considered she was in great danger from haemorrhage should she vomit. She had always been a very bad sailor. As a precaution she was given two capsules of 'KIRBY'S SEA-SICK CURE' immediately she went on board. We got into rough water shortly before midnight, but Lady——had an undisturbed night's rest. She took one capsule half-an-hour before dressing. She had breakfast in the dining hall, and assured me she had no sensation of nausea or sickness. Although we had rough weather for five days, and at other periods of the voyage, she was not sea-sick. There was no nausea of any kind, and the remedy produced no after-effects."

Pole Vault Decided Day At Intercollegiate Meet

Three Leading Schools Were Practically Tied Till That Event

The pole vault decided the East China Intercollegiate track and field meet held at Nanking on Saturday, according to detailed reports of the day's sports. Though Soochow university won the day with 41 points over Fuhtan's 31 for second position and Nanking's 30 for third, the three leading colleges were practically tied when the pole vault was contested for. At that stage of the day's sports Soochow was leading with 32 points, Fuhtan was second with 31, and Nanyang was third with 30. Soochow's first, second and fourth in the event gave their athletes the win.

The point score at the finish was: Soochow 41, Fuhtan 33, Nanyang 30, St. John's 17, Shanghai 13, Nanking 8, Southeastern University 1.

One East China Intercollegiate record was broken at the meeting, the javelin throw. C. Wang of Nanyang annexed that honor with a throw of 131 feet. His team-mate Z. K. Ting took third place, while Soochow men got second and fourth.

At the annual business meeting of the Intercollegiate association held on Friday before the track and field events, it was learned definitely that the national track and field meet which had been planned for Saturday, May 20 had been finally abandoned, due to the fact that Northern colleges had been prevented from holding their preliminary meetings because of the war. The meet will not be held this year.

A general discussion of intercollegiate athletics for East China was had at the meeting, the most important outcome of which, perhaps, was the stand taken by the association against the "training table" for teams or squads of college athletes. It was decided that the training table smacked too much of professionalism, and that it were better not to train Chinese students under such conditions.

Dr. E. V. Jones of Soochow university was elected president of the association to succeed Mr. C. F. Remer of St. John's who plans to return to America in June.

The next track and field meet of the East China association will be held either in Shanghai or at Hangchow, the point to be decided between the committee members later.

Local Schools To Train For Base Ball Tournament

Five local schools will probably commence a baseball tournament within ten days for a special cup, to be donated, it is believed by the Shanghai Baseball Club. Physical directors of the Chinese colleges, Nanyang, St. John's and Shanghai college are planning to whip their baseball squads into shape immediately, since the East China International Intercollegiate track and field meet is over and the National meet is abandoned because of the war, and they are hoping that the Shanghai American School and the Shanghai Public School will come into the tournament.

Cricket Club Will Be Strong This Season

The Shanghai Cricket Club team's showing against the Hongkong Garrison eleven on Saturday augurs well for the club's success in local cricket this season.

The Club was even more successful against the Hongkong team than was the team selected to represent Shanghai in the interport. And the Club did not have its strongest aggregation in the field.

Clay Pigeon Season Opens Sunday Afternoon At 3:30

Club At Annual Meet Plans For New Year; Elects New Officers

Clay pigeon shooting under the auspices of the Shanghai Clay Pigeon Club will start next Sunday at 3:30 p.m., on the Rifle Range, according to an agreement reached last evening at the annual general meeting of the association held at the Shanghai Club.

At the meeting, which had a good attendance, the most enthusiastic clay bird shots in Shanghai talked over the prospect of manufacturing clay targets locally, and a report of the progress along that line was given. It is quite likely that within the coming season properly constructed birds, of a regulation brittleness will be manufactured here. A formula provided by Mr. Doremus is being experimented with now by Mr. Hexamer, and it is expected that breakable birds will soon be available for local enthusiasts.

Another important point discussed at the meeting was the question of a new mode of handicapping all competitors and keeping them up to a close handicap on their present form. The idea which was offered by Mr. Read in the form of a resolution, was that all shots be handicapped on their last 100 shots, so that their present form may always be used as the base for handicapping.

The resolution, which was approved by the meeting follows:

1.—That the maximum allowance given to any shot shall be that to which he is entitled on the previous season's average, but not to exceed 30 percent.

2.—That each shot shall commence the season with an allowance based on the previous year's average.

3.—That after a shot has fired 100 birds his handicap, subject to Rule 1, shall be based on the number of broken birds in that 100.

4.—That subsequently after each shoot a fresh handicap, subject to Rule 1, shall be made out and based on the average of the last 100 birds fired at.

The object of the resolution it was explained was to keep all shooting members on a closer handicap based on the varied form they showed through the season.

The report of the committee showed a good condition of finances, an increase in membership, and a good supply of

On Making Sure
There is nothing like making sure where one's health is concerned. Good health is the best guarantee that Life shall be a success. Now it is well-known that digestive disorders are the cause of more cases of ill-health than any other class of ailment. The digestive system is so extensive, so complex and so hard-worked, that its liability to derangement is not astonishing. Happily, however, many digestive ailments can be easily remedied. Happily, too, many digestions need never go wrong. You can make reasonably sure that your digestion will not fail you, even under trying conditions, if you get into the excellent way of taking Beecham's Pills. This "Wonderful Medicine"—as it has been called—does really work wonders with the digestive system. Beecham's Pills impart tone to the stomach, regulate the action of the liver and kidneys and gently stimulate the bowels into healthy activity. Get into the habit of making sure. Have recourse to Beecham's Pills at the first sign of digestive trouble. Make sure of your health by taking

London, May 14.—Their Majesties returned to London yesterday evening and were most warmly welcomed by a large crowd.

Boulogne, May 13.—King George has concluded his tour of war cemeteries in France and Belgium. After inspecting those at Ypres and Vimy Ridge, His Majesty, amongst others, visited those at Lillers, Bethune, Arras, Bapaume, Albert and Etaples.

In the presence of Marshal Foch the King placed a great wreath of red roses on the memorial in the French national Cemetery at Notre Dame de Lorette. His Majesty paid special attention to the graves of the Dominion troops in the various cemeteries.

His Majesty participated with the Queen today in an imposing Anglo-French ceremony at the Terlincthun Cemetery at Boulogne where His Majesty in a speech dwelling on the services of "the singlehearted assembly of nations and races which form our Empire" said:

"The whole circuit of the earth is girdled with their graves, but in France our brothers, alas, were numbered in hundreds of thousands. They lie in the keeping of a tried and generous friend and a resolute and chivalrous comrade in arms."

After visiting the graves of Indian soldiers in Meerut Cemetery, their Majesties embarked in the afternoon for England.

MANY PRESENT AT LAST RITES FOR MR. B. A. EDWARDS

Funeral Of Prominent Member Of American Community At Bubbling Well Chapel

The funeral of Mr. Burgess Allison Edwards whose death occurred on Sunday took place yesterday afternoon at 5 p.m. at the Bubbling Well Chapel. Despite the inclement weather, a large attendance of friends was present and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. The American Episcopalian service was conducted by the Rev. J. W. Nichols, Dean of the Theological School of St. John's University, in a simple and impressive manner.

Mr. Edwards succumbed to an attack of scarlet fever.

He was 30 years old, and a graduate of Harvard University in the Class of 1914. Following his graduation he went into business in New York. He was with the firm of Hayden, Stone and Company, until June, 1916, when he enlisted in the first Field Artillery of the National Guard of Massachusetts for Federal service on the Mexican border. He was on the border until November, 1916, when he returned to New York for a short time before reporting, in the spring of 1917, as a candidate at the first officers' training camp in Plattsburg, New York.

In August, 1917, he was commissioned as Captain, F. A. R. C., and assigned to command "B" battery, 302nd Field Artillery, Camp Devens, Massachusetts. In July, 1918, he sailed for France and until the armistice, commanded the First Battalion, 302nd Field Artillery in the Meuse-Argonne sector. He returned to America with his organisation in April, 1919, and was honorably discharged two months after. He accepted a commission as Major in the reserve corps.

In August of the same year he married Miss Jean Chandler Lawson, daughter of Thomas W. Lawson, the noted financier and author of "Frenzied Finance." Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards sailed for Shanghai where he joined Andersen, Meyer and Company.

After severing his connection with Andersen, Meyer and Company Mr. Edwards recently became Secretary and Managing Director of the Eastern Hide and Leather Company. He took an active interest in sports and was a member of the Shanghai Rowing Club. He also was a member of the American Club and the Cercle Sportif Francais. Besides his widow, who resides at 548 Rue Ratard, Mr. Edwards is survived by his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards of Boston, and a brother, Mr. John C. Edwards who lives in France.

Floral tributes were sent by the following: Frederick Ward Post of the American Legion, American University Club, Courtesies Committee of the American Woman's Club, Cable Department staff of Andersen, Meyer, & Co., Chinese and Foreign staff of Building Department, Andersen, Meyer and Co., Shipping Department of Andersen, Meyer and Co., Lewis Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Julean Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brinkley Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ayscough, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bassett, The Boys, Miss Edna Lee Booker, Mr. George D. Excessive Heat And Injured Eye Keep Prince Idle

Accident In Polo Game Disarranges Manila Program

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Manila, May 15.—The Prince of Wales landed this morning to carry out his program for the day which consisted of a visit to the Cavite Naval Station and luncheon with the Senior Officer. His Royal Highness visited the polo ground and watched a game but did not play himself, less on account of his bruised eyebrow, which is rapidly healing, than owing to the excessive heat. In the evening the Renown sailed for Labuan where she is due on Wednesday morning.

Manila, May 13.—The Prince of Wales was struck by the ball while playing polo here today, sustaining an inch and a half gash over the right eyebrow, which necessitated two stitches. The wound is not considered serious, but His Royal Highness was not able to attend the Governor-General's dinner and reception tonight.

Manila, May 14.—The Prince of Wales this morning landed from the Renown to carry out the pre-arranged program at Manila. Save for a rather conspicuous black eye, His Highness appeared to be none the worse for his mishap whilst playing polo yesterday. The Prince received a great reception on stepping ashore, his pluck in wanting to continue the game after his brow had been cut by the ball strongly appealing to the Filipinos.

His Royal Highness visited Fort McKinley, afterwards lunching with General Wright, Commandant of the troops. This afternoon, the Prince spent a short time at a garden party at the Manila Club given by the British community, but the weather was insufferably hot.

This evening, the Prince will give a dinner party on board the Renown.

HOW BABY'S OWN TABLETS ARE HELPING IN INDIA

The fame of Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, spreads apace. Here is a message of praise and thanks recently from India. Its writer, Mr. B. Sharma, head clerk at the Cavalry School, Saugor, Central Provinces, states:—

"My baby son, aged 9 months, has been subject to various maladies usual among infants during their teething period. Diarrhoea with slow fever was the leading trouble. The child purged as often at 30 times in 24 hours and vomited undigested milk.

"When I commenced giving him Baby's Own Tablets his condition appeared to be almost hopeless, but the contents of one vial had a marvellously soothing effect. His maladies then gradually disappeared, and by the time three vials were finished the child had regained his full strength."

No home where there are young children should be without Baby's Own Tablets. They are an ever-ready remedy for infantile indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, teething pains, croup, colds and worms. Druggists sell them, or post free, 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Spot bar silver was up ⅜d. and forward ⅛d. in London on Saturday.

The New York price advanced to 70⅞ cents, and the London-New York cross rate to 444¾.

The only change in our official quotations here today was a drop in the Rupee rate to 266½.

Our market throughout the morning was firm, business in Sterling being done at 3-7 for all deliveries to July, and in Gold Dollars at 79⅜ for May and 79⅝ for June-July.

For a short time during one part of the morning there were buyers at these rates, but generally there were sellers.

In the afternoon rates firmed up still further, and the market closed with sellers of Sterling at 3s. 7¼d. for May, 3s. 1⅞d. for June and 3s. 7⅛d. for July-August.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 80⅛ for May 80 for June and 79¾ for July-August.

India bought silver in London on Saturday, and the market there, as well as in New York, is reported as firm.

The Breaking-Off Of The Dairen Conference

THOSE who have followad carefully the press reports from the United States both in connexion with the Genoa Conference and with the break-off of the Dairen Conference must have noticed that the press in the United States has shown signs of alarm on the subject of the Dairen Conference and what its collapse may signify, and also on the possibility that some small conclave at the Genoa Conference may take upon itself to seek an understanding with Soviet Russia and the Far Eastern Republic on the issues that have been left undecided through the Dairen breakdown.

Some newspapers have gone so far as to suggest that Mr. Hughes, acting in the spirit of the Four Power Treaty signed at Washington, should make inquiries from Japan as to her intentions in Siberia, and one influential journalist is reported as having suggested three questions for Mr. Hughes to ask. These three questions are:

(1) Why are more Japanese troops being sent to Siberia?

(2) Why was the Dairen Conference broken off without accomplishing anything?

(3) What guarantees did Japan require from the Chita Government before she would consent to the evacuation of her troops?

Now, these are quite reasonable questions, and such as the world at large is asking without obtaining a Japanese answer to them; but it may well be understood that Mr. Hughes does not feel that he is quite in a position to ask these very simple questions. It is not difficult, in fact, to understand that Mr. Hughes regards himself as having washed his hands of the whole Siberian issue, for he has at least placed himself in an equivocal position on the matter. That this is so requires only a few words of explanation to show.

The agenda of the Washington Conference fell into two parts, the first part dealing with limitation of Armaments, the second part dealing with Pacific and Far Eastern Questions. The official text of the agenda set forth this second part of the program as follows:

One. Questions relating to China.

First: Principles to be applied.

Second: Application, Subjects:

(a) Territorial Integrity.

(b) Administrative Integrity.

(c) Open Door—equality of commercial opportunity.

(d) Concessions, monopolies or preferential privileges.

(e) Development of Railways, including plans relating to the Chinese Eastern Railway.

(f) Preferential Railroad rates.

(g) Status of existing commitments.

Two. Siberia: similar headings.

It will be seen from the foregoing agenda that the Conference contemplated dealing with Siberia, and dealing with it precisely as if it were China, a state tied up by nearly two thousand quarto pages of restrictive treaties, hardly one of which does not involve a violation of her political independence, territorial integrity and administrative integrity and autonomy. It goes without saying that had representatives of the Far Eastern Republic participated in the Conference no such program of discussion of the affairs of the Far Eastern Republic would ever have been brought forward.

As a matter of fact the Conference hardly dealt with Siberian affairs at all. What happened with regard to Siberia was a mere episode. In the course of one of his speeches Mr. Hughes, United States Secretary of State, referred to Siberian problems, and took the opportunity to deliver his soul of some pretty severe strictures on Japan's action in Siberia. To these strictures the Japanese delegation made a lame reply, and then gave an indefinite promise that the troops of Japan would evacuate the Far Eastern Republic some fine day. Similar vague assurances were given with regard to economic questions, but the Conference went no further into the matter, and it is the firm opinion of some of those who were present that the Big Four reached what is commonly called a Gentleman's Agreement to let Siberia severely alone and give Japan a free hand there in consideration of the fact that Japan was to toe the line (more or less) with respect to Shantung. At any rate, there is not a single word about Siberia in the official record of the results of the Conference. The Four-Power Pact is there of course, and the Nine-Power Pact, and all the little pacts, and the supplementary pacts that explain the big pacts and the additional pacts that take the sting out of the little pacts; but in the whole compact mass there is not a single reference to Siberia.

The nearest the Conference pacts ever get to Siberia is in the two Resolutions regarding the Chinese Eastern Railway. Practically, by the pointed omission of all reference to Siberia, in spite of the fact that Siberia was to be a principal topic on the Agenda of Pacific and Far Eastern Questions, the Conference abdicated any right it may have had to an opinion on Siberian issues in favor of Japanese man-on-the-spot singlehandedness. As a matter of fact it had no such right, as it had excluded the representatives of the Far Eastern Republic from the Conference table and, by generally accepted principles of diplomacy, the decisions of outside parties in reference to any independent state are not recognisable except with the consent and approval of the state in question, and of course the Government of the Far Eastern Republic is not bound by any decision the Conference has taken. As a matter of fact no decision was taken, except the very widely and strongly suspected Gentleman's Agreement, which of course is binding on nobody.

Not only is all this true, but the Four-Power Pact itself, which is the biggest mouse that the mountain brought forth, is confined in its application to the insular possessions and insular dominions of the High Contracting parties, so that Siberia does not come within its scope. It might of course be said that Siberian affairs threaten the insular possessions of Japan, for Karafute (the southern half of Sakhalin) is included within the definition of these, but it cannot be expected that Mr. Hughes should take the initiative in matters relating to Japan and not to the United States of America.

Nevertheless, and in spite of these difficulties, Mr. Hughes would not find it difficult, if he wished to do so, to bring the matter to the attention of the Japanese Government in a friendly way. The very fact that Siberian problems were shelved at the Conference provides Mr. Hughes with ground upon which to act, for he is not tied down by the Four-Pact or any other pact, involving him in a great deal of red tape and the necessity for moving the heavy machinery the existence of which is presumed in the Pact. He can go frankly to Japan and say: "Look here, we left this Siberian business in your hands. What is the trouble? Our people are getting restive, and our colleagues are obviously uneasy; these are too much preoccupied in Europe to take any open action in the matter, but those are beginning to ask questions. Can nothing be done both to ease the situation itself and to enlighten our people about it, justifying if possible the Gentleman's Agreement by which we have given you a free hand?"

Mr. Hughes not only could make such an inquiry, but he ought to do so. The representatives of the Far Eastern Republic were ruled out of the Conference itself, which places upon those who were members of the Conference a direct responsibility for seeing to it that their colleagues do no unseemly act in the territory of the excluded Republic, especially as the Siberian issue was placed on the Agenda, which means that the conferees did realise some sort of responsibility in the matter.

It is hardly likely that Mr. Hughes will act simply on the strength of an undefined querulousness in the press, unless that querulousness should develop into very open and acute anxiety and criticism, but there are American interests who should make it their business to bring Siberian affairs before Mr. Hughes. Just in the same way as the conferences of British Chambers of Commerce in China have brought before the British Government certain important matters on which the Chinese Government should be approached, so the American Chambers of Commerce in the Far East might well take up with Mr. Hughes the whole issue of Japan in Siberia. The presence of Japanese troops on the soil of the Far Eastern Republic is a direct hindrance to American commercial and economic activities in the region. Not until those troops are withdrawn can there be any certainty of settled peace in the territory, for their very presence encourages reactionaries, adventurers and swashbucklers of every kind to attempt to set up a new government, feeling confident that they will have Japanese moral support if nothing else. This uncertainty is a direct detriment to American legitimate interests, and the American Chambers of Commerce in the Far East might easily furnish Mr. Hughes with precisely the ground on which he could take his stand in making inquiries from Japan. And the sooner they do it the better.

Lumbago.

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

A Little Forum In Your Home

BY DR. CHARLES FLEISCHER

Have you a little forum in your home?

We hope that you have a little fairy—several of them. All the more need for a little forum!

Edward Earl Purinton in his stimulating volume on "Efficient Living," prints what he calls a Home and Efficiency Table for the American Housewife and Mother.

The responsible mother is asked (why not the father also?): "Can you answer all your children's questions, without evasion or embarrassment?" "Do you conduct home discussions on great questions of the day?"

Whether or not you have children in your household your home should be a forum. The little questions of the day and the great questions of all time should there be discussed and—but more of that later.

Because of our lack of training for parenthood, relatively few parents are able to answer their children's questions at all, let alone doing it without evasion or embarrassment.

There is no good reason why you should not answer honestly—and as intelligently as possible—whatever you are asked.

It is not right to let your pride prevent your frank confession of ignorance. True, you will suffer somewhat in your children's estimation, because they like to regard their parents as paragons of wisdom.

On the other hand, they are sensitive to sincerity, and you will fall still further in their esteem if they suspect you of dishonesty. You will show them a good example of honesty and frankness if, when you cannot tell them what they want to know, you say simply, "I don't know!"

It is wrong to meet with evasion the child's natural eagerness to understand the mystery of life and birth, by telling it: "You must not ask now about these things; wait until you are older."

With that evasion you make several mistakes. You discourage your child's instinctive tendency to use you as a teacher and to make you a confidant. And you are likely to give him that perverted attitude toward sex which is one of the farthest-reaching curses of human life.

Also you have lost the chance to induct and instruct your child in the beauty and the wonder of reproduction and birth and the place and function of death.

No child is ever too young to begin to learn the meaning of life and death, of origin and destiny. The fact that the child asks is reason enough for you to reply.

Beyond the free asking of questions by children and their direct answering by parents, every home should be a little forum for frank and full discussion of all kinds of subjects, big and little, local and universal, trivial and large, personal and social, food of the moment and stuff for all eternity.

Politics and religion—supposed to be taboo in polite society, which would rather discuss personalities and gossip and superficialities—should be the frequent theme for thorough discussion around the home table.

We recognise generally that the ultimate ruler of democracy is Public Opinion, and yet we lose sight of two facts in this connection: One, that public opinion is made up of the mass of private opinions. The other, that domestic discussion of questions of common concern is the best way of making both private and public opinion so intelligent as to be trustworthy and safe.

It is self-evident that a home which maintains a little forum will be incalculably more interesting to all its members than one which furnishes no such melting-pot for the fusing of ideas.

The home should be the place where it is easy to think aloud and to compare your thoughts with others who have silently thought and respectfully listened while you talked.

To be sure, it might betray to the youngsters and the females of the family that the father does not know it all.

It is one of the bad and good results of democracy that it weakens autocracy and traditional authority.

But if it lessens the power of the one and the few, it increases the responsibility and the influence of the many.

A little forum in your home may add measurably to the numbers of those who only think that they know, bnt at least They Will Know That They Think!

Greatness Has Its Penalties

BY S. E. KISER

Van Plunk has papers locked away
That I would like to own;
His ventures always seem to pay,

And he is widely known.
I wish I were as rich as he;
I'd give up work, for life;
But, Lord, how I should hate to be
The husband of his wife!

His word is law for many men
Who tremble if he frowns;
Reporters interview him when
He travels to their towns.
I'll not deny that I'd be glad
To win as he has won.
But, Lord, I'd hate to be the dad
Of his misguided son.

He has an office I'd be proud
To occupy as mine;
Before his door there is a crowd
Of anxious men, in line.
I'd like to have authority
To order thus and so;
I'd rather miss that all than be
His daughter's father, though.

If I could have for just a year
The income he enjoys
I'd jump my job, and you should hear
Me make a cheerful noise!
I'd like to have his wealth, his fame,
And be "all set" for life—
But not, if with it I became
The husband of his wife.

"One leads where many follow."

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Hall's Distemper (Registered Trade Mark) is a unique preparation and has the recommendation of leading sanitary authorities, architects, and decorators everywhere.

Avoid disappointment by refusing substitutes which do not possess its advantages.

Kapala Estates To Be Wound Up

The winding up of the Kapala Island Estates, Ltd., was authorised at an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders held yesterday afternoon following the ninth annual meeting of the company.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. G. Grayrigge, whose speech at the ordinary general meeting was as follows:

"Gentlemen, with your permission I will take the annual report and accounts as read.

"The depressed condition of the rubber market during the past year accentuated to the point of hopelessness the financial position of this company. Despite the most rigid economy, the Dutch company working account shows a further loss of Taels 23,326.39, which added to the loss incurred previously, makes a total deficit of Taels. 52,390.39 while the Shanghai company's adverse balance has been increased by Tls. 24,233.58, this sum representing Shanghai office expenses, directors and auditors fees, and debenture interest, bringing up the amount standing to the debit of profit and loss account to Taels 103,795.79.

"The total amount of debentures issued is Taels 164,500.

"The property is reported to be perfectly clean and is remarkably free from disease. The labor force has been reduced to the lowest point possible. The cost of production was reduced from 26.22d. in 1920, which high figure as you know was due to the influenza epidemic decimating the labor force, to 16.16d. in 1921, a huge reduction relatively, but as the average nett selling price for all grades was only 7.66d. the property is still far from being a satisfactory proposition these days.

"The estimate of output for 1922 is given as 140,000 lbs. to cost 41.17 cents Straits currency per lb. F. O. B. If this estimate is lived up to and granted the company was not overwhelmed with a debenture issue carrying heavy interest, a reasonable rise in the selling price might make the property worth persevering with, but as matters now stand this board sees no prospect of the company ever getting on to its legs again, and as going on only means increasing the indebtedness, in all fairness to the gentleman who has been financing the company, this board has decided to bring matters to a head, which will be done at the extraordinary general meeting convened for this afternoon.

"Gentlemen, despite the present unsatisfactory financial position, I feel that we should nevertheless express our thanks to the manager and straits agents who have done their best under very trying circumstances, and aslo to our secretaries and general managers, Messrs. A. R. Burkill & Sons, for their efficient conduct of the company's affairs.

"I now beg to propose Resolution No. 1, viz: That the report and accounts for the year ended December 31, 1921 as printed and circulated be passed.

"This is seconded by Mr. Truman.

"The resolution is now before the meeting and is open to discussion."

The resolution was passed unanimously, as were also the following:

"That the appointment of Mr. C. R. Burkill as a director of the company be confirmed."

"That Mr. E. S. Kadoorie be re-elected a director of the company."

"That Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews be re-elected auditors to the company."

The chairman's address to the extraordinary general meeting was as follows:

"Gentlemen—At the annual meeting just held, I gave you an outline of the company's financial position.

"As you know well, for a considerable period this company, having exhausted all its capital, to carry on, incurred an overdraft at its bankers', which was guaranteed by Mr. E. S. Kadoorie. The time came when owing to this gentleman's departure from Shanghai for an indefinite period due steps had to be taken to safeguard his interests and this safeguard took the form of debentures bearing twelve percent interest. These debentures were offered to all registered shareholders but met with no response. Of these debentures to the end of the last financial year, Taels 164,500 were issued. The interest outstanding at the same date was Taels 18,601, which the company is unable to pay, and which amount has of course since been augmented.

"With the present low price of rubber, your directors see no prospect ahead of paying interest, let alone redeeming the debentures, and are convinced that carrying on only means increasing the load of debt. The estimated expenses for the state for 1922 are S. $57,635. If you add to this Shanghai expenses of almost Taels 6,000 plus interest on debentures, and compare same with what might be the proceeds of a crop estimated at 140,000 lbs., I think you will agree that your directors' decision to bring matters to a head is fully justified.

"Your directors being thus of opinion that it is no use going on, got into touch with Mr. Kadoorie, the sole debenture holder, who replied by wire that he did not wish to foreclose if possible. Mr. Kadoorie in a confirmatory letter to me writes, inter alia, 'I have before me your advice and also the minutes of the meeting, all recommending me to foreclose this company. However, I am sure if you think of the shareholders and the public you will agree with me that it is best not to foreclose unless absolutely necessary. If the company goes wrong I will get no sympathy and if it goes right people will say that I robbed them. I wish to show the shareholders that I have worked to the very last to save the company.'

"That, gentlemen, is Mr. Kadoorie's attitude. This board advised him in his own interests to foreclose, we cannot pay the interest due, he cannot of course continue putting up further funds indefinitely. Gentlemen, on behalf of this board, I have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Kadoorie has worked to the very last to save the company and had not the market gone so completely against us, he would have saved the company, and I think we should give him a vote of thanks for the more than generous way in which he has backed up the company, all to no avail. I deeply regret to say. Efforts to get a bid for the estate meet with no response; apparently there are no buyers these days and no relief is to be expected in this direction.

"I now beg to propose the extraordinary resolution, viz:

"'That it has been proved to the satisfaction of this meeting that the company cannot by reason of its liabilities continue its business and that it is advisable to wind up the same and accordingly that the company be wound up voluntarily and that Mr. Eric Arnold Prince of Shanghai be and he is hereby appointed liquidator for the purposes of such winding up.'"

The resolution was then passed.

Children Cry for Fletcher's
CASTORIA
Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.
It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.
Save the Babies.
Infantry mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in ivilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

U. S. March Exports To China Increase

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, May 11.—The following figures have been received by cable from the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in Washington, indicating an increase of $2,100,000 gold of American exports to China for the month of March over those of the month of February, and an increase of $200,000 gold on imports. The total of imports for March is $8,500,000 gold, while the exports are valued at $9,500,000 gold.

There has also been an increase in all automobile and railroad industries, according to cable reports from the same source, and prices in general are firm with the prospect of a rise unlikely. Coal and textile prices remain unchanged, and there is an increased activity in steel.

Figures for the first three months of 1922 are as follows:

Exports from U. S. A. to China.
January	G.$7,600,000
February	G.$7,400,000
March	G.$9,500,000
Imports from China to U. S. A.
January	G.$10,600,000
February	G.$8,300,000
March	G.$8,500,000

The cable has been made public through the courtesy of the American Commercial Attache.

Silk Market

Messrs. William Little and Company write as follows in their silk market report:

Our last report was dated April 28.

During the two weeks under review the market for new silk has opened with transactions at declining rates. The weather has so far been very favorable for the crop with supplies of leaves plentiful and cheap, in consequence silkmen have been disposed to meet enquiry at declining figures—which represent in some instances Tls. 70.

M. H. Y. Blue Dragon and Feima ex. 1, 2, sold out supplies in December at Tls. 1,220 av., this week's price is Tls. 130 down. Common New Style reached Tls. 1,175 in March and now shows a drop of Tls. 255.

Steam filatures have continued in demand and with prompt delivery generally exhausted have advanced prices, latest settlements are about Tls. 100 from bottom opening rates.

Cables from Japan advance the price of Shinsui No. 1 to Yen 1,800 with a steady market.

Tsatlees.—Silver Double Elephant Tls. 800, Gold Kiling Tls. 780.

Taatlee Filatures.—Crown 1, 2, Tls. 980. Kung Kee Mars 1, Tls. 950 to Tls. 890.

Taatlees New Style.—M. H. Y. Blue Dragon and Feima Ex. 1, 2, Tls. 1,055-45 av. Cloud Unicorn and Double Horse Ex. 1, 2, Tls. 1,035 av. Gold Stork 1, 2, Tls. 985 and 960 av. Pegasus, 1, 2, Tls. 965 av. Ostrich Ex. 1, Tls. 960 av. Common Tls. 970 to 920.

Tussah Filatures 8 coc.—A few transactions are reported with price advanced to Tls. 740 av. for best grades.
